  - (b) arises in terms of Part B and Part C of Chapter 5 of the Act, or this Chapter, applies equally to a nominee entity, asset manager or similar person who has authority, by any means, to exercise rights of disposal or rights of voting with respect to particular securities.
- (2) No compliance obligation arises from an announced intention to acquire a beneficial interest in the remaining voting securities of a regulated company, as contemplated in Section 117(1)(c)(v), until an offer is made for all of those securities.

83. Effect of interests held by non-related persons

- (1) There are no consequences in terms of the Part B and Part C of Chapter 5 of the Act or this Chapter, if a transaction involves only—
  - (a) a person with a non-controlling beneficial interest in a regulated company, acting alone; or

- (2) If a person contemplated in sub-regulation (1) acquires control of a previously unrelated person, they become related persons.

Chapter 5 - Fundamental Transactions and Takeover Regulations : Part A— Interpretation and Application

- (3) If two previously unrelated persons become related, as contemplated in sub-regulation (2), and their aggregated interests in the regulated company are equal to or exceed the prescribed percentage of voting rights in the regulated company—
- (a) an affected transaction has occurred; and
  - (b) one of the related persons must make a mandatory offer, and if necessary, comparable offers, to the holders of the remaining securities of the regulated company.

84. Acting in concert

- (1) In addition to the presumption set out in section 118 (5), the following persons are presumed to be acting in concert with one another:
- (a) a company, with:
    - (i) any of its directors;
    - (ii) any company controlled by one or more of its directors;
    - (iii) any trust of which any one or more of its directors is a beneficiary or a trustee; and
  - (b) any of the company's pension, provident or benefit funds and share incentive schemes with one another.
- (2) If the Panel is aware of persons coming into concert or coming out of concert, and those persons have not declared themselves as having come into concert or coming out of concert in accordance with this regulation, the Panel may presume those persons came into concert or came out of concert from a date determined by the Panel as being the date of coming into concert or coming out of concert.
- (3) A presumption that two or more persons are acting in concert, coming into concert or coming out of concert in terms of section 118 (5), or this regulation, is rebuttable in a hearing before the Executive Director on application by any such person.

- (5) Within five business days after coming into concert, or coming out of concert, each person involved must make a declaration, in Form TRP 84, and deliver it to the regulated company concerned, and to the Executive Director.
- (6) Any compliance obligation applicable to an offeror applies equally to any person acting in concert with the offeror.

- (7) Persons who are acting in concert are not, for that reason alone, required to make a mandatory offer, if—
- (a) at the time of coming into concert, each of them was entitled to exercise voting rights which were less than the prescribed percentage; and
  - (b) as a result of coming into concert they are entitled, in aggregate, to exercise voting rights exceeding the prescribed percentage; and
  - (c) none of them has acquired any further securities as defined in Section 117(1)(j).
- (8) A presumption that two persons have “acted in concert”, as a result of one of them granting an option to the other, as contemplated in Section 118 (5), even though not rebutted in terms of Section 118 (6), does not give rise to an obligation to make a mandatory offer—
- (a) for the duration of the option if—
    - (i) at the date the option was granted, each of them was entitled to exercise voting rights that were less than the prescribed percentage;
    - (ii) as a result of coming into concert they are entitled, in aggregate, to exercise voting rights equal to or exceeding the prescribed percentage; and

  - (b) for the duration of the option if, at the date of grant of the option, the grantee was already entitled to exercise voting rights that were equal to or exceeded the prescribed percentage; or
  - (c) until the grantee exercises the option, or otherwise acquires securities, that results in the grantee being able to exercise voting rights equal to or exceeding the prescribed percentage, if—
    - (i) at the date the option was granted, the grantee was not entitled to exercise voting rights that were equal to or exceeded the prescribed percentage; and
    - (ii) the grantor was entitled to exercise voting rights that were equal to or exceeded the prescribed percentage.

- (2) The acquisition of a beneficial interest as contemplated in the definition of “affected transaction” in Section 117(1)(c)(iv) will give rise to a mandatory offer as contemplated in the definition of “affected transaction” in Section 117(1)(c)(vi) only if the acquisition falls within the circumstances contemplated in Section 123 (2).
- (3) The obligations contemplated in section 123 (3) and (4) do not arise if—

    - (ii) were acquired before the entitlement arose; and
    - (iii) give the person voting rights in accordance with the rights of the preference shares (e.g. arrear dividends) unless the person, or any of the concert parties, acquires any further securities as defined in section 117(1)(j).

- (4) A transaction is exempt from the obligation to make a mandatory offer following publication by a regulated company of a transaction requiring the issue of securities as consideration for an acquisition, a cash subscription or a rights offer, if the independent holders of more than 50% of the general voting rights of all issued securities of the regulated company have agreed to waive the benefit of such a mandatory offer in accordance with the principles detailed in Section 125(3)(b)(ii).
- (5) Irrespective of whether an issue of securities is made conditional upon a waiver, a waiver by the independent holders of more than 50% of the general voting rights of all issued securities of the regulated company is a nullity if any acquisitions are made by an acquirer or a subscriber or underwriter, or by any of their respective concert parties, in the period between the transaction announcement and date of the waiver.
- (6) At the date of obtaining a waiver, the acquirer, the subscriber or an underwriter concerned must declare to the Panel in writing that it has not acquired any securities in the circumstances contemplated in sub-regulation (5).

- (7) A waiver requires a fair and reasonable opinion to be included in the circular in all instances other than a rights offer at a discount to the prevailing market price at the date of announcement.

- (4) The offer consideration(s) in a comparable offer is to be determined by the offeror taking account of the class of security to which the comparable offer is to be made.
- (5) The fair and reasonable opinion given by the independent expert and the independent board opinion regarding the comparable offer must have the same opinions regarding fairness and reasonableness as the respective fair and reasonable opinions given by the independent expert and the independent board regarding the offer which gave rise to the comparable offer.

- (4) An independent board must form a clear basis for the expression of an opinion to relevant holders dealing with value and price compared to the consideration offered.

- (6) If, after the firm intention announcement and before the offer closes, an offeror or any person acting in concert with it acquires relevant securities in the offeree regulated company at above the offer consideration per relevant security, the offeror must —
