Notice of leadership changes at SAIPA

The board of the South African Institute of Professional Accountants (SAIPA) has reached an agreement with the CE of SAIPA that his contract will come to an end on the 31st of May 2018 and it was further agreed that he no longer represents SAIPA in any capacity as of today.

The SAIPA board wishes Mr Bongani Coka all the best in his future endeavours and thanks him for his service to SAIPA since 1 July 2016.

The SAIPA board also reaffirms its commitment to growing SAIPA to the benefit of its members and the accountancy profession as a whole. It remains dedicated to upholding the aspirational status of the Professional Accountant (SA) designation.
